AMUSEMENTS.

News and Announcements About the City Theaters.

"Held by the Enemy" was greeted by a fair audience at the Grand last evening, but nothing like that which its merits demanded. It is by long odds the most powerful play that has been presented in this city this season, and the company was almost a perfect one. It is a story of the late war, but none of the material is conventional or hackneyed, and the play, as a whole, is infinitely thrilling and intense. The galloping horse feature in the third act created the usual enthusiasm.

The standard company was greeted by a fair house at Black's last night and gave lively satisfaction. In many particulars the show is a strong one. Matinee this afternoon and performance this evening.

MISS KATE FORSYTH AT THE GRAND.

On Monday and Tuesday evenings Miss Kate Forsyth, supported by her superb company of artists, will be the attraction at the Grand. She will present her two plays, "Mareville" and "Faithful Hearts" on the two evenings, respectively. This talented actress will be recalled here as Mr. John McCullough's leading lady for several succeeding seasons. Her play of "Mareville" is treated in an interesting manner, the various threads are closely connected and the spectator never finds the action tedious. It is said that there is scarcely an unnecessary line in the whole play, and that the author's diction is terse, forcible and straight to the point, and the situation well conceived and cleverly arranged. Messrs. Roach and Knox, the authors, have been heartily congratulated upon the success of their work, which is said to be, by a long way, the best dramatic effort that has been republished by a native playwright for a long while, and in the present temper of the public bids fair to gain for Miss Forsyth both reputation and substantial reward. Miss Forsyth will display some beautiful dresses in the play of "Faithful Hearts," which she presents Tuesday evening. On Monday evening she will play the latest dramatic triumph, "Faithful Hearts."

"CHRIS AND LENA" AT BLACK'S.

The popular comedian, Pete Baker, late of Baker and Farron, will appear at Black's Thursday evening, February 24 in the great play "Chris and Lena." The Era of Glasgow, Scotland, where Mr. Baker had the most successful success, was a victory, with the engagement of the American character comedian, Pete Baker, who appeared last night before a crowded house in his play, original, "Chris and Lena." In everything he does, Pete Baker is most artistic. His exquisite sense, clever dandy, and side-splitting humor take immensely. The play is purely a comedy-drama, intensely interesting, abounding with racy dialogue and starting and ending. The opening scene, an old blacksmith shop, and Wolfenstein gardens in the second act, are especially worthy of mention.

 ALWAYS TO THE FRONT.

The R. E. Souder Store, 33 West Main Street, Where the Ladies of Springfield Should Buy their Millinery.

As the change of seasons approaches it becomes a question with the ladies, "What shall we wear and where will all that be clothed?" and of all the perplexing parts of a lady's wardrobe no item gives more concern and at the same time adds more to the appearance than the hat or bonnet to be worn. This is a question largely be solved by trading with a firm where can always be found the latest stock of styles and novelties from which to select, and where the greatest skill is displayed in the trimming and make-up of the millinery. In Springfield the R. E. Souder store has always held the lead. In this particular and will continue to do so in the future. They always carry an immense stock and will in the future carry a larger line than ever before, in short they try to lead the millinery front place among Springfield milliners. Their new Spring goods are arriving daily, and the ladies will find it to their interest to call in and examine the stock.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Feb. 18, 1887.

To the officers and members of Fidelity lodge, No. 20, Ohio Division Independent Foresters.

DEAR SIRS:—I take great pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of a $1,000 draft from the Grand Treasurer, in full payment of the policy of my deceased husband, Wilson A. Wink, a member of Fidelity Lodge, No. 20, Ohio Division Independent Foresters, at the time of his death. The receipt of this money is most welcome and timely and a great proof to me of the estimable benefits of your order to the widows and orphans of its members.

Respectfully,

MRS. EVA WIERICK.

Physicians Have Found Out

That a contaminating and foreign element in the blood, developed by indigestion, is the cause of rheumatism. This settles upon the sensitive sub-cutaneous covering of the muscles and ligaments of the joints, causing constant and shifting pain, and aggravating as, calcareous, chalky deposit which produces stiffness and distortion of the joints. No fact which experience has demonstrated in regard to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has stronger evidence to support than this, namely, that this medicine of comprehensive cure checks the formidable and atrocious disease, nor is it less positively established that it is preferable to the poisons often used to arrest it, since the medicine contains only salutary ingredients. It is also a signal remedy for malarial fevers, constipation, dyspepsia, kidney and bladder ailments, debility and other disorders. See that you get the genuine.

If any firm says to you that they can sell boots and shoes 25 per cent. less than the Arcade shoe house, you may set it down that they are accustomed to large profits from a sheepskin. If you want the worth of your money in boots and shoes, go to Starkley & Scowden, in the Arcade.

Removed.

William's art store has been removed from 28-30 east Main street, opposite Bell's block. The closing out sale of pictures, picture frames, art goods, stationery, etc., will be continued. Great bargains are offered.

The Federal grand jury at St. Louis returned twenty-two indictments for election frauds.

LAGONDA NOTES.

Items of Interest from Springfield's Lively Little Suburb.

Charlie Little now drives a fine, young, blooded horse, recently purchased of a Mr. Barnham in Champaign county.

George Andrews has returned from his trip to Virginia and its old home. He thinks of moving to that state about the first of March.

There is much complaint by our citizens, and the public generally, of the terrible condition of some of our streets, especially the one in large of the church. It is almost impossible, from mud and stones, the water works' ditch leaving it in bad shape. Whoever is responsible should see to it that something is done soon.

Wm. W. Burnett, a former well known citizen of Lagonda, is now a farmer in Arkansas, having leased over two hundred acres, and gone to work. One who knows, says he is thirty-five miles from any place; can't even buy a drink of whiskey nearer than that, which is certainly a great blessing in his case. We predict that William will not farm long, as it is too hard work. His natural tact and good common sense will soon bring him into prominence in that benighted country, and we shall expect to hear of his soon getting some official position and living without work, which we know he would enjoy as much as any man.

A musical treat is waiting all who may attend the concert at the hall in New Moorefield, on next Tuesday evening, directed by Mrs. Florence Scott, of Lagonda, assisted by Miss Lottie Wells, who will preside at the organ. The well-known ability of both, with the assistance of others, insure a good evening's entertainment. The quartette of Messrs. Reed will take part, and the Lagonda band will play a number of selections. B. F. Reed will take a hack load from this place for the reasonable sum of twenty-five cents. The proceeds of the concert are for church purposes. Admission, 25 and 15 cents.

Clergymen, Lawyers and all other public speakers will be benefited by Goeck's Mexican Syrup, which will strengthen and clear the voice.

Great Sale of Land at Rock Bottom Prices.

We, the undersigned trustees of Geo. Kious, being duly authorized by a deed of trust executed to us by Geo. Kious and Melinda Kious, his wife, of the county of Madison, township of Range, in the State of Ohio, and with the consent and agreement of the creditors of the said Kious, have received two parcels of real estate, containing about Seven Hundred and Sixty (760) acres, hereinafter described. To be sold at private sale, in parcels or as a whole, to purchasers, the proceeds to be applied in the payment of debts to the aforesaid creditors in their priority.

Tract No. 1 consists of about Six Hundred (600) acres, located about 12 miles east of London, the county seat of Madison county, Ohio, and about 6 miles west of Mt. Sterling, O., a five town on the Midland Railroad, and surrounded on three sides by free timbers. This is a very fertile piece of land, suitable for grazing and farming, or both; well watered; will divide into six farms running to free timbers, and all having good water and near school-houses. This land has nearly all been cultivated, and is in a good state of cultivation, and well drained, with tile buildings farm, with a railroad building near the farm. This is a rare opportunity for parties wanting good homes in one of the best and most fertile counties in Ohio, or for anyone wanting a large farm for grain or stock raising, or both.
